

SPECIAL FESTIVAL '11 EDITION

Tejas Teller - newsletter of the Tejas Storytelling Association

Once upon a time . . .

Oh best Beloved

I don't know, but I've been told . . .

In a kingdom far away, in a time so long ago . . .

Meanwhile, back at the ranch . . .

AND WHAT A FESTIVAL IT WAS!!!

C'mon inside!!! Look around!!! No tellin' what you'll find, who you'll see, or what you'll wonder at

EDITOR'S CHOICE

Festival has come and gone. And such a wonderful time it was. This issue is totally devoted to Festival and all its various and sundry glories. So come on in and set a spell. Hope you enjoy!! Now, onward to conference!!!

Thursday Night - Ghost Stories Galore FROM GHOULIES AND GHOSTIES, AND LONG-LEGGEDY BEASTIES, AND THINGS THAT GO BUMP IN THE NIGHT . . . GOOD LORD DELIVER US !!!!!

Make us jump . . . make us shiver . . .
make us quiver story giver . . .
AND Genie Hammel did just that.

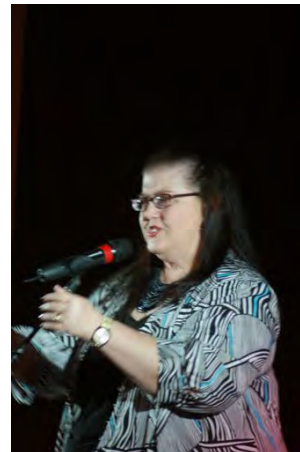

And you just wonder what's exactly behind that impish grin, don't you? Lyn Ford and one of her signature "zingers" skewer the audience.

Many had been waiting to hear Steve McCluer and they weren't disappointed, I can tell you that.

Tony Hardman shows that sometimes straightforward intellectual horror is the worst kind.

Scare me once, shame on you; scare me twice, shame on Marilyn Hudson. "And don't you fergit it, ya' hear?!?!?!"

WE DON'T OWE OUR SOUL TO NO COMPANY STORE!!!

PAID OFF THE DEBT!!!

In just a little over 18 months the organization rallied and here's the result: with a few clicks of the lap-top and several ENTER keys, our intrepid leader Elizabeth Ellis pays off the TSA debt.
